

CHAPTER 1

Sleepy Hollow is a small town. It's in the woods in a valley. It's a scary place. Some people think it's cursed by a wizard, others think a German doctor cast a spell there. There is evil magic in Sleepy Hollow. There are lots of stories about Sleepy Hollow. People see ghosts there.

The most frightening ghost is the headless horseman.

People say he's a soldier from the war and he's looking for his head. A cannonball hit him and he lost it.

The headless horseman is a ghost. He rules over Sleepy Hollow. He rides in the woods. He rides in the valley. He rides on the roads to Tarry Town.

People say he's buried in the churchyard and he rides out every night to the battlefield to find his head.

wood or woods (n) a small forest

spell (n) magic cast a spell (idiom) to influence someone/something by using words thought to be magic evil (adj) very bad, unpleasant

frightening (adj) scary, making you feel afraid

*Sleepy Hollow is a small town.
It is in the woods in a valley.*

The headless horseman is very fast. He only rides at night. He's always back in his grave by morning. People tell stories about him all over the country. They call him the Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow.

People in Sleepy Hollow know all about the horseman. They are born with evil magic around them. Newcomers to Sleepy Hollow start to see ghosts.

When I visited Sleepy Hollow, I saw the ghosts. I came home to New York and the magic went away.

Thirty years ago, a man went to Sleepy Hollow. His name was Ichabod Crane. He went to Sleepy Hollow to teach children. He was a clever man. He liked to believe in magic. He read books on magic. He came to Sleepy Hollow and he found real magic.

*Thirty years ago, a man went to Sleepy Hollow.
His name was Ichabod Crane.*

CHAPTER 2

Ichabod Crane was from Connecticut. Connecticut was famous for its teachers and its woodsmen.

Ichabod Crane was a strange-looking man. He wasn't a woodsman. He was very tall and very thin. He had very narrow shoulders and very long arms and legs. His hands were very big. His head was very small. He had big ears, big eyes and a pointy nose. His clothes didn't fit. They were too big.

His school was a small building. It was made of logs. It only had one room. It had some windows. There were holes in the wood. Pages from old books were stuffed in the holes. It was easy to get inside. It was hard to get out again.

The school was outside the town. It was at the bottom of a hill. The river was close by. It had trees around it. There was a big birch-tree at one end of the school.

Ichabod Crane was a strict teacher. He wasn't cruel. He punished strong children twice as much as weak children. He told the bad children, "You will remember this and thank me for it."

woodsman (n) a man who lives in the forest and knows a lot about it cruel (adj) unkind, unpleasant, causing pain, violent punish (v) to make someone suffer for a crime or a wrongdoing
