

CHAPTER 1

It is a hot summer day. I am at the lake with my family. The lake is very busy. Many people are here. There is a swan on the lake.

My family is big. I have a mother, a father, a sister and a brother. I also have a dog. My sister is sixteen. My brother is fourteen. They do not play with me. They sit around. They listen to music. I walk next to the lake. The dog is with me. His name is Scraps. I throw a stick. Scraps runs after it. I wait for him to bring it back. He does not come.

Scraps comes back after a long time. He doesn't have the stick. He has a ball.

lake (n) a large area of water surrounded by land busy (adj) full of people or things; actively doing something swan (n) a large white bird with a long neck

It is a hot summer day. I am at the lake with my family.

“That is not your ball,” I say. I take the ball, “We will give this back. We will find the owner of the ball.”

I look for the owner of the ball. I see a girl. She is looking for the ball. Her dog has my stick.

“Hello,” I say.

“Hello,” she says.

“Is this your ball?” I ask.

“Yes. Is this your stick?” she asks.

“Yes,” I say.

“I like your dog. What is his name?” she asks.

“Scraps. What is your dog's name?” I ask.

“Ben,” she says.

“I am going to sit by the lake. Do you want to come?” I ask.

“Yes, please,” she says.

We walk to the lake. It is very hot. We put our feet in the lake. It is very cool. It feels nice on my feet.

owner (n) a person who owns something look for (phrasal verb) to search for someone or something

*We put our feet in the lake. It is very cool.
It feels nice on my feet.*
